THE choir of the Fourth Street M. E. Church will include in their Thankegiv-ing services the "Gloria" from Mozart, THE Finance Committee of the Board of Commissioners was in session sgain last evening, examining the bank returns. THE social of the Second Presbyterian Church will meet at the residence of Mr. B. F. Caldwell, on 20th street, next Friday evening. THE sizzle of frying doughputs can be heard by telephone at a considerable dis-tance. Another machine is to be per-fected to transmit the smell.

Nor an item at the City Building last night. Everything was dark, dismal, gloomy, blue, quiet and in perfect keep-ing with the weather out doors.

ALREADY there is a suggestion of Christmas novelties in some of the stores. This season's holiday trade seems ex-pected generally to be a large one.

"TRE Tennesseeam" sang in the Kirk-wood M. E. Church on Monday night, to a fair audience, the receipts being $83. Of this amount the church received $22, and the singers the balance. Last night they gave a concert at Martin's Ferry, and to night are advertised for Steuben-ville.

"THESE are tears that ead Fall sheds for her departed glory," said the poet last night, as with a smiling face he raised his ragged cotton unbrella. "This is the blastedest, meanest, wettest weather I ever see," growled the millionaire reporter, as he shelded himself with an elegant silk rais screen.

Court adjourned until Saturday, December 3.

Curcuit Court—Judge Melvin.

The Circuit Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning.

The case of Curtist vs. Cox, which has compled the attention of the court for the past eight days, was given to the jury about 10 a. M.

J. M. Warten was appointed administrator of the the state of Nancy Hardman, decessed. Bond $2,500,5 with Wm. Blake as surety.

In the case of Virginia Sisson vs. G. J. Dauber, the defendant plead the statute of lamitation of one year. Plaintiff excepted, the exception was overruled, replication to plea, and trial before the following jury: John Hebrank, John Updegraff, W. L. Gilbreath, D. W. Mellwain, G. O. Smith, Jacob Deku, J. L. Hay, John Dunning, James Cunningham, Edgar Pierson, C. M. Coen and Platoff Zane. The object of the plaintiff in the habit of drinking to excess. This is anti tato recover of defendant, who is a saloon keeper, $5,000 damages, for selling liquor to plaintiff by husband, who was in the habit of drinking to excess. This is tried in the County Court about a year ago.

The jury in the libel case of Col, W. B. Cuttis vs. Dr. J. H. Cox returned to the court room about 5 r. M., and announced that they had agreed upon a verdict for the plaintiff for $5,000 damages, It is understood that the jury first stood elevent on one in favor of $10,000, and finally compromised on $5,000.

Adjourned until the usual hour this morning.

at Piedmont and Keyser City, where Mr.
James Canninghum has the work successfally inaugurated. He reports great destruction of property by the recent flood on the North Branch of the Potoms river, also on the Sonth Branch, but to what extent is unknown. Jake says he prefers Wheeling, with its homely sights and surroundings, to eternal hills and mountains with all their scenic grandeur.

Mr. Bartley Campbell and his comedy company will be here in December.

SHOOTING MATCH AT FRANK WALTERS'. SHOOTING MATCH AT FRANK WALTERS'.

There was quite a crowd of amstern tell tender at Frank Walters' Two-Mile House yesterday afternoof, to participate in the shooting match announced to take place on his grounds. Probably one hundred persons were present including some of the crack shots of thecity. Frank had 141 turkeys ready to be slaughtered, but the greater number of them were reprieved through the influence of Old Prob., who interrupted the shooting shortly after it commenced with a shower of rain, which continued during the remainder of the afternoon and put a complete stop to the sport.

THE gas fixtures for the new Washingtan Hall building were purchased on Monday, from an Eastern house, and are described as very handcome and appropriate. Mr. August Roll, who has leased the old "Office" room for a saloon, has also purchased his gas fixtures, which are said to be as fine as any in use in the city. It is the intention of Mr. Roll to fit up his saloon in elegant style.

ENJOY LIFE.-What a truly beautifu ENJOY LIPE.—What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives an agrandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means for enjoyment. We can deaire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worried out with disease, when there is no oceasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and disease as when born. Dyspepsia and "THE LYCRUM."—Mr. Charles Kemble, the architect who prepared the plans and is superintending the building of the magnificent structure which has taken the place of Washington Hall, suggests "The Lyceum" as an appropriate name for the new building. The suggestion is an admirable one, and we heartly section the motion.
